emergency]

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 57 O.S. 2001, Section 510.10, as amended by Section 2, Chapter 242, O.S.L. 2004 (57 O.S. Supp. 2004, Section 510.10), is amended to read as follows:

Section 510.10 A. The Department of Corrections is hereby authorized to use electronic monitoring devices for any inmate sentenced for a crime or for any person granted parole, or as disciplinary sanction as authorized by law.

B. The electronic monitoring of an inmate pursuant to this section shall be in addition to active supervision required by law. An inmate assigned to electronic monitoring shall be required to pay the Department of Corrections for all or part of any monitoring equipment or fee, substance abuse treatment program or follow-up treatment expense, supervision cost, or other costs while assigned to electronic monitoring. The Department shall determine whether the person has the ability to pay all or part of such costs or fee.

C. Any person in the custody of the Department of Corrections or released to parole who is assigned to substance abuse treatment in the community under any provision of law, including, but not limited to, any placement in a halfway house, work release center, community corrections center, a facility operated by or under contract with the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services or any hospital or other treatment program, shall be assigned to electronic monitoring while in such treatment. The length and duration of electronic monitoring will be at the discretion of the supervising authority.

D. As used in this section, "electronic monitoring" means monitoring of an inmate within a specified location or locations by means of a global positioning device approved by the Department of Corrections with active supervision by correctional officers or other employees of the Department of Corrections.

~~D.~~ E. The Department shall promulgate and adopt rules and procedures necessary to implement the provisions of this section.

SECTION 2. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
