BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 53 O.S. 1991, Section 5.2, is amended to read as follows:

Section 5.2 The Oklahoma Historical Society is hereby authorized to transfer ownership of historic properties to appropriate organizations or groups who agree to maintain said properties in the best interest of historic preservation and who pay fair market value for such property. When property owned by the Society is declared surplus, or is determined to be beyond the means of the Society to maintain properly, the Society shall first offer the property for sale at fair market value to the original donor, even if a reversionary clause is not included in the gift agreement. If a donor cannot be identified, the property may be offered for sale at fair market value to an appropriate not-for-profit organization or a federally recognized Indian tribe that agrees to maintain said property through a formal written contract which provides for compensation, and may include in-kind, in the form of maintenance and preservation agreements. The process for the sale and transfer of title shall originate with the Oklahoma Historical Society Board of Directors and be subject to approval in writing by the Contingency Review Board. The authorization to sell this property pursuant to this section shall exempt the sale from other statutes of this state dealing with the disposal of surplus state property.
