B. Any qualified applicant meeting the requirements for more than one of the positions of private investigator, security guard,

C. A private investigator may carry a firearm, if said private investigator also performs the functions of an armed security guard, under the authority of the armed security guard license; or if said private investigator performs no functions of an armed security guard, the Council may add an endorsement to the license of the private investigator that states "Firearms Authorized", in lieu of the armed security guard license, provided the private investigator completes the same training and testing requirements of the armed security guard. The Council will charge the same fee for the "Firearms Authorized" endorsement on the private investigators license as the cost of the armed security guard license.

D. Any identification card issued to a person meeting the license requirements for an armed security guard shall be distinct and shall explicitly state that the person is authorized to carry a firearm pursuant to the provisions of this act, Section 1750.1 et seq. of this title. Upon receipt of the license and identification card, such armed security guard is authorized to carry a firearm in the performance of his duties subject to the provisions of this act and the rules and regulations prescribed by the Council.

E. The Council may issue a conditional license to a person employed by a security or investigative agency as a trainee for a security guard, armed security guard or private investigator position, when such person has submitted a properly completed application, made under oath, subject to the following conditions:

1. A conditional license shall authorize such employees to perform the same functions that regular licensees perform, but subject to supervision by the employing agency as the Council may prescribe;

2. The holder of such conditional license shall complete the necessary training requirements within one hundred eighty (180) days from the effective date of the conditional license, after which the conditional license shall expire;

3. The holder of a conditional license as an armed security guard shall not carry a firearm in the performance of his duties until he has completed a course of firearms training as prescribed by the Council, and has been issued a regular license by the Council;

4. A conditional license may be renewed at the discretion of the Council, if necessary to allow an applicant to complete any training required for a regular license; and

5. When the Council finds that a conditional license holder has completed the required training and is otherwise qualified for a license pursuant to the provisions of Section 1750.1 et seq. of this title, the Council shall issue such person a regular license.

Further, under oath, the applicant shall certify that he has no disqualifying convictions as specified in the Oklahoma Security Guard and Private Investigator Act or by the Council. The applicant shall further meet all other qualifications. If upon completion of the required background investigation it is discovered that a disqualifying conviction exists, the Council shall immediately revoke the armed guard license of the applicant.
