Section 10-107. A. If an elderly person or incapacitated adult lacks the capacity to consent to receive protective services recommended by the Department of Human Services, these services may be ordered by a court on an involuntary basis through an emergency order.

B. 1. In ordering involuntary protective services, the court shall authorize only that intervention which it finds to be least restrictive of the liberty and rights of said person, while consistent with his welfare and safety. The basis for such finding shall be stated in the record by the court.

2. Whenever it is consistent with the welfare and safety of the person, the court shall authorize that involuntary protective services be administered to the elderly person or incapacitated adult in his present living accommodations.

C. 1. Payment for services provided to an elderly person or incapacitated adult determined by the court to be in need of involuntary protective services shall be made ~~as provided by subsection D of Section 10-106 of this title~~ from either:

- a. assets of the person receiving involuntary services, if the court so orders after a showing by the Department that the person has adequate assets to make such payment, and that payment for the involuntary services will not cause the person to go without other necessities of life, or
- b. any private or public assistance programs for which the person is eligible.

2. If the court does not order payment from the person's assets, and no private or public funds are available to the person, payment shall be made as provided by paragraph 2 of subsection D of Section 10-106 of this title.

D. Upon the request of an authorized representative of the Department, the district attorney of the county in which the person alleged or found by a court to be in need of involuntary protective services resides shall provide any assistance required by the Department in any local proceedings related to the provision of involuntary protective services.

SECTION 4. AMENDATORY 43A O.S. 1991, Section 10-108, as amended by Section 5, Chapter 159, O.S.L. 1993 (43A O.S. Supp. 1993, Section 10-108), is amended to read as follows:

Section 10-108. A. If the Department of Human Services determines that an elderly person or incapacitated adult is suffering from abuse, neglect, or exploitation presenting a substantial risk of death, or immediate and serious physical harm to himself to the extent that an emergency exists, lacks mental capacity to consent to receive protective services and no consent can be obtained, the Department may petition the district court in the county in which said person resides, or in the district court in the county where any of the protective services are to be provided, for an order authorizing involuntary protective services.

B. The petition shall be sworn to and include the name, age, and address of the elderly person or incapacitated adult who the Department determines is in need of emergency protective services, the nature of the abuse, neglect, or exploitation, the services needed, and information relating to the capacity of the person to consent to services and the attempts of the Department to obtain consent.

C. The elderly person or incapacitated adult shall receive a forty-eight-hour notice of the hearing. The court may waive the forty-eight-hour notice requirement upon showing that immediate and reasonably foreseeable death or serious physical harm to the person will result from the forty-eight-hour delay. The person has a right to be present and represented by counsel at the hearing. If he is indigent or, in the determination of the court, lacks capacity to waive the right to counsel, the court shall appoint counsel. If the person is indigent, the cost of representation by counsel shall be borne by this state.

D. In issuing an order for involuntary protective services, the court shall adhere to the following limitations:

1. Only such protective services as are necessary to remove the conditions creating the emergency shall be ordered, and the court shall specifically designate the approved services in the order of the court;

2. Protective services authorized by an involuntary protective services order shall not include a change of residence unless the court specifically finds such action is necessary to remove the conditions creating the emergency and gives specific approval for such action in the order of the court. Emergency placement may be made to such facilities as nursing homes, personal medical institutions, foster care services and other home placements, or to other appropriate facilities. Emergency placement shall not be made to facilities for the acutely mentally ill;

3. Involuntary protective services may be provided for a period not to exceed ten (10) calendar days. The original order may be renewed once for a ten-day period upon a showing to the court that continuation of the original order for involuntary protective services is necessary to remove the emergency;

4. In the court order, the court shall appoint the Department or an interested person or organization as temporary guardian of the person with responsibility for the welfare of said person and authority to give consent for the person for the approved protective services until the expiration of the order for involuntary protective services;

5. The issuance of an order for involuntary protective services and the appointment of a temporary guardian shall not deprive the elderly person or incapacitated adult of any rights except to the extent validly provided for in the order or appointment; and

6. To implement an order for involuntary protective services, the court may authorize forcible entry of the premises of the adult to be protected for the purpose of rendering protective services or transporting the person to another location for the provision of such services only after a showing to the court that attempts to gain voluntary access to the premises have failed and forcible entry is necessary. Persons making authorized forcible entry shall be accompanied by a peace officer.

E. The elderly person or incapacitated adult, the temporary guardian, or any interested person may petition the court to have the emergency order set aside or modified at any time.

F. 1. If the elderly person or incapacitated adult continues to need protective services after the renewal order provided in subsection D of this section has expired, the temporary guardian shall immediately petition the court to order either or both of the following:

- a. appointment of a guardian, or
- b. application for commitment of the elderly person or incapacitated adult to a nursing home, personal medical institution, foster care service and other home placement, or to some other appropriate facility other than a facility for the acutely mentally ill.

2. In order to make the finding that a need exists for continued services, the court shall direct that a comprehensive physical mental and social evaluation of the elderly person or incapacitated adult alleged to be in need of continued services be conducted ~~by the Evaluation Service~~. The evaluation shall include at least the following information:

- a. the address of the place where the person is residing and the person or agency which is providing care, treatment, or services at present,
- b. a resume of the professional treatment and services provided to the person by the Department or agency, if any, in connection with the problem creating the need for emergency protective services, and

c. a medical, ~~psychological, psychiatric,~~ and social evaluation ~~and review,~~ including the Department's assessment of the person's capacity to consent to services, a psychological or psychiatric evaluation and review if the mental state of the person is in question, and any recommendations for or against maintenance of partial legal rights. Such evaluation and review shall include recommendations for placement consistent with the least restrictive environment required.

3. The court may authorize continued protective services on an involuntary basis for an elderly person or incapacitated adult for a period not to exceed six (6) months.

4. At the time of the expiration of an order for continued protective services on an involuntary basis for an elderly person or incapacitated adult, the guardian, the original petitioner, or any interested person may petition the court to extend its order for protective services for an additional period not to exceed six (6) months. The contents of the petition shall state the factual basis for the need for continued protective services of the person. Notice of the petition for the extension of protective services shall be made in conformity with subsection C of this section.

G. The petitioner shall not be liable for filing the petition if the petition was filed in good faith.

SECTION 5. This act shall become effective July 1, 1994.

SECTION 6. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
