SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 10 O.S. 1991, Section 1102, as last amended by Section 1 of Enrolled House Bill No. 1975 of the 1st Session of the 45th Oklahoma Legislature, is amended to read as follows:

Section 1102. A. 1. Upon the filing of a petition, or upon the assumption of custody pursuant to the provisions of Section

1107 of this title, the district court of the county in which a child:

- a. resides,
- b. is found, or
- c. was abused, neglected or deprived or found to be in need of supervision, shall have jurisdiction of any child who is or is alleged to be abused, neglected or deprived or in need of supervision and shall have jurisdiction of the parent, guardian, legal custodian, legal guardian or stepparent of said child, regardless of where the parent, guardian, legal custodian, legal guardian or stepparent is found; and shall have jurisdiction of any other adult person living in the home of such child. For any child who is or is alleged to be delinquent, the district court of the county where the cause of action arose shall have jurisdiction of the child and of the parent, guardian, legal custodian, legal guardian or stepparent of said child, regardless where the parent, guardian, legal custodian, legal guardian or stepparent is found; and shall have jurisdiction of any other adult person living in the home of such child.

B. The district court in which a petition is filed or the district court in which custody has been assumed pursuant to the provisions of Section 1107 of this title may retain jurisdiction of a delinquent child in such proceeding notwithstanding the fact that the child is subject to the jurisdiction of another district

C. The district court in which a petition is filed which alleges that a child is in need of supervision or is deprived can issue any temporary order or grant any interlocutory relief authorized by this chapter notwithstanding the fact that another district court within the state has jurisdiction of the child or has jurisdiction to determine the custody or support of the child.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, a child under eighteen (18) years of age who is taken into custody for the alleged violation of a municipal ordinance relating to one or more of the offenses listed in paragraph 1 of this subsection, and who can be prosecuted in municipal court for such offense pursuant to jurisdiction assumed by the municipal court under paragraph 1 of this subsection, may be temporarily detained by the municipality in a municipal juvenile facility certified by the Oklahoma Commission for Human Services, but only under the following conditions:

- b. the child shall be released to the personal custody of his or her parent, legal guardian, legal custodian, or attorney as soon as practicable and upon the written promise of such parent, legal guardian, legal custodian, or attorney to return the child to municipal court to answer the municipal charges on the date and at the time set by the municipal court,
- c. the child shall be detained in the municipal juvenile facility for no longer than twenty-four

(24) hours; provided, if no parent, legal guardian, legal custodian, or attorney appears at the municipal juvenile facility and assumes personal custody of the child within said twenty-four-hour period, then custody or release of the child shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Section 1107 of this title,

In furtherance of this subsection, the Oklahoma Commission for Human Services is directed to and shall establish standards for the certification of municipal juvenile facilities, with said standards to include, but not be limited to, the conditions set forth in subparagraphs a through h, inclusive, of this paragraph, and the Department of Human Services is directed to and shall provide or approve an appropriate training program for staff members of such facilities. In addition, during any calendar year that any child:

- a. fails to appear for a court date on more than one occasion,
- b. is convicted of two or more of the offenses listed in paragraph 1 of this subsection, which offenses occurred on different days, or

In addition, the court may require the child to receive counseling or other community-based services, as necessary.

If a child is prosecuted for an offense in a municipal court, the child shall not be prosecuted for the offense in the district court. The municipal court may also impose costs as authorized by law.

4. Any fines and costs properly assessed against any child and which remain unpaid after three (3) months may be assessed by the municipal judge against the child's parent, parents, legal guardian or legal custodian and collected and paid as provided for in Section 27-122 of Title 11 of the Oklahoma Statutes. Provided however, prior to such latter assessment, the court clerk shall give such child's parent, parents, legal guardian or legal custodian notice by certified mail to their place of residence or personal service of such action proposed to be taken.
