SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 856.2 of Title 21, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly and willfully harbour an endangered runaway child. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one (1) year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Every person convicted of a second or any subsequent violation shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a felony punishable by a fine not exceeding Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or by imprisonment not exceeding three (3) years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. For purposes of this section, an "endangered runaway child" means an unemancipated minor who is voluntarily absent from the home for seventy-two (72) hours or more without the consent of a parent or other custodial adult.

SECTION 3. AMENDATORY 74 O.S. 1991, Section 150.12A, is amended to read as follows:

Section 150.12A A. It shall be the duty of any sheriff, chief of police, city marshal, constable, or any other law enforcement officer, within twenty-four (24) hours upon receipt of any report of a missing or runaway person to send one copy of such report to the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation and enter such information, when applicable, to the National Crime Information Center. Within seventy-two (72) hours of location or discovery of the missing or runaway person the sheriff, chief of police, city marshal, constable, or any other law enforcement officer shall notify the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation and remove the entry from the National Crime Information Center.

B. The Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation shall provide forms for missing or runaway person information to each law enforcement officer provided for in subsection A of this section. ~~Such~~ The forms shall be compatible with the data collection entry procedures of the National Crime Information Center. The Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation shall establish guidelines for law enforcement officers concerning the collection and dissemination of information concerning missing or runaway persons.

C. Whenever a missing or runaway person report regarding a person born in the State of Oklahoma and under eighteen (18) years of age is received by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, the Bureau shall immediately notify the State Commissioner of Health that ~~said~~ the person has been reported to be missing or reported as a runaway. The Director of the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation and the State Commissioner of Health shall jointly establish the procedures and forms necessary for the transmittal of information between the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation and the State Department of Health required pursuant to the provisions of Section 150.1 et seq. of this act title.

D. The Bureau shall establish a twenty-four-hour toll-free number where parents of runaway or missing children may call to get help in finding the child and where runaway children may call to make contact with parents or request assistance from law enforcement agencies in returning home.

SECTION 4. This act shall become effective July 1, 1996.

SECTION 5. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
