SECTION 4. AMENDATORY 59 O.S. 1991, Section 1906, is amended to read as follows:

Section 1906. A. Applications for a license to practice as a licensed professional counselor shall be made to the State Commissioner of Health in writing. Such applications shall be on a form and in a manner prescribed by the Commissioner. The application shall be accompanied by the fee required by ~~this act~~ the Licensed Professional Counselors Act, Section 1901 et seq. of this title, which shall be retained by the State Department of Health and not returned to the applicant.

B. Each applicant for a license to practice as a licensed professional counselor shall:

- ~~1. Be a citizen of the United States;~~
- ~~2. Be a resident of this state or be in the process of establishing residency in this state;~~
- ~~3. Be possessed of good moral character;~~
- ~~4. 2. Pass an examination based on standards promulgated by the State Board of Health pursuant to the Licensed Professional Counselors Act;~~
- ~~5. 3. Be at least twenty-one (21) years of age; and~~
- ~~6. 4. Otherwise comply with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Board pursuant to the provisions of the Licensed Professional Counselors Act.~~

C. In addition to the qualifications specified by the provisions of subsection B of this section, an applicant for a license to practice as a licensed professional counselor shall have:

- ~~1. Acquired at least forty-five (45) semester hours of graduate credit with course work concentrating in mental health counseling, community psychology, psychology, guidance counseling or rehabilitation counseling. These forty-five (45) semester hours must include a master's degree from a college or university accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education. Such course work shall emphasize mental health in a planned program of study, including courses in counseling skills and~~

~~theories~~ Successfully completed at least forty-five (45) graduate semester hours (sixty (60) graduate quarter hours) of counseling-related course work. These forty-five (45) hours shall include at least a masters degree in a counseling field. All course work and degrees shall be earned from a regionally accredited college or university. The State Board of Health shall define what course work qualifies as "counseling related" and what degrees/majors qualify as a "counseling field";

2. As of January 1, 2000, successfully completed at least sixty (60) graduate semester hours (ninety (90) graduate quarter hours) of counseling-related course work. These sixty (60) hours shall include at least a master's degree in a counseling field. All courses and degrees shall be earned from a regionally accredited college or university. The Board shall define what course work qualifies as "counseling-related" and what degrees/majors qualify as a "counseling field"; and

~~2.~~ 3. Three (3) years of supervised full-time experience in professional counseling subject to the supervision of a licensed professional counselor pursuant to conditions established by the Board. One (1) or two (2) years of experience may be gained at the rate of one (1) year for each thirty (30) graduate semester hours earned beyond the master's degree, provided that such hours are clearly related to the field of counseling and are acceptable to the Board. The applicant shall have no less than one (1) year of supervised full-time experience in ~~professional~~ counseling.

SECTION 5. AMENDATORY 59 O.S. 1991, Section 1908, is amended to read as follows:

Section 1908. A. An applicant who meets the requirements for licensure pursuant to the provisions of the Licensed Professional Counselors Act, Section 1901 et seq. of this title, has paid the required license fees and has otherwise complied with the provisions of the Licensed Professional Counselors Act shall be licensed by the State Board of Health.

B. Licenses issued pursuant to the Licensed Professional Counselors Act shall expire twenty-four (24) months from the date of issuance unless revoked. A license may be renewed upon application and payment of fees. The application for renewal shall be accompanied by evidence satisfactory to the ~~Board~~ State Department of Health that the applicant has completed relevant professional or continued educational experience during the previous twenty-four (24) months. Failure to renew a license as required by the Licensed Professional Counselors Act shall constitute a suspension of said license. A person whose license has been suspended may make application within one (1) year following the suspension in writing to the ~~Board~~ Department requesting reinstatement in a manner prescribed by the ~~Board~~ Department and payment of the fees required by the provisions of the Licensed Professional Counselors Act. The license of a person whose license has been suspended pursuant to this section for more than one (1) year shall not be renewed except upon making application and taking and passing the examination as required by the Licensed Professional Counselors Act.

C. An LPC whose license is current and in good standing, who wishes to retire the license, may do so by informing the Department in writing and returning the license to the LPC office. A license so retired shall not be reinstated but does not prevent a person from applying for a new license at a future date.

SECTION 6. AMENDATORY 59 O.S. 1991, Section 1909, is amended to read as follows:

Section 1909. The State Commissioner of Health shall have the power to issue ~~reciprocal~~ licenses by endorsement for applicants licensed in other states to practice as a licensed professional counselor if the Commissioner deems such states to have qualifications and standards comparable to those required under this act.

SECTION 7. AMENDATORY 59 O.S. 1991, Section 1911, is amended to read as follows:

Section 1911. A. Any person who represents himself or herself by the title "~~licensed professional counselor~~" "Licensed Professional Counselor" or "LPC" without having first complied with the provisions of the Licensed Professional Counselors Act, Section 1901 et seq. of this title, or who otherwise offers to perform counseling services, or who uses the title of Licensed Professional Counselor or any other name, style or description denoting that the person is licensed as a licensed professional counselor, or who practices counseling, upon conviction, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imposition of a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each offense and in addition may be imprisoned for a term not to exceed six (6) months in the county jail or by both such fine and imprisonment.

B. It shall be unlawful for any person not licensed under or specifically exempt from this act to advertise or otherwise offer to perform counseling services or to use the title of Licensed Professional Counselor or any other name, style or description denoting that the person is licensed as a licensed professional counselor, or to practice counseling. Such action shall be subject to injunctive action by the State Commissioner of Health.

SECTION 8. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1913.1 of Title 59, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. The State Board of Health shall promulgate rules governing any licensure action to be taken pursuant to the Licensed Professional Counselors Act, Section 1901 et seq. of this title, which shall be consistent with the requirements of notice and hearing under the Administrative Procedures Act, Section 250 et seq. of Title 75 of the Oklahoma Statutes. No action shall be taken without prior notice unless the State Commissioner of Health determines that there exists a threat to the health and safety of the residents of Oklahoma.

B. Any person who has been determined by the State Department of Health to have violated any provision of the Licensed Professional Counselors Act or any rule or order issued pursuant to these provisions may be liable for an administrative penalty of not more than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for each day that the violation continues. The maximum administrative penalty shall not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for any related series of violations.

SECTION 9. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1915.1 of Title 59, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. On or before January 1, 2000, any person holding a valid license as a Licensed Professional Counselor shall be exempt from the revised education requirements of Section 4 of this act.

B. Persons whose LPC license is inactive, under suspension, on probation, or in any other status other than active, shall remain in that status.

SECTION 10. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 1916.1 of Title 59, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

All licensed professional counselors, except those employed by public institutions, shall, prior to the performance of service, furnish the client with a copy of the Statement of Professional Disclosure as promulgated by rule of the State Board of Health. A current copy shall be on file with the State Department of Health at all times.

SECTION 11. AMENDATORY 59 O.S. 1991, Section 1917, is amended to read as follows:

Section 1917. A. A professional specialty designation area may be established by the State Board of Health upon receipt of a petition signed by ~~thirty (30)~~ fifteen (15) qualified ~~applicants~~ persons who are currently licensed as licensed professional counselors, who have acquired at least sixty (60) semester hours, to increase to seventy-five (75) hours on and after January 1, 2000, of graduate credit in ~~mental health counseling, community psychology, psychology, guidance counseling or rehabilitative counseling~~ counseling-related course work from a regionally accredited college or university ~~accredited by an agency recognized by the United States Department of Education,~~ and who ~~have met~~ meet the recognized minimum standards as established by appropriate nationally recognized certification agencies; provided, however, if a nationally recognized certification does not exist, the Board may establish minimum standards for specialty designations.

B. Upon receipt of credentials from the appropriate certification agency, the Board may grant the licensed applicant the appropriate specialty designation. The applicant may attain specialty designation through examination. A ~~professional~~ licensed counselor ~~cannot~~ shall not claim or advertise a counseling specialty and ~~cannot~~ shall not incorporate the specialty designation into his or her professional title, unless the qualifications and certification requirements of that specialty have been met and have been approved by the Board and the appropriate certification agency.
