

ENROLLED HOUSE
BILL NO. 1591

By: Peltier of the House

and

Cain of the Senate

An Act relating to poor persons; creating an advisory committee; providing for appointment and membership; providing for cochairs; specifying duties; requiring report; providing for staffing; providing for termination; providing for noncodification; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. An advisory committee is hereby established to study and develop a bank match reporting system. The advisory committee shall consist of one member of the State Senate appointed by the President Pro Tempore and the chair and vice-chairs of the Senate Finance Committee and Senate Human Resources Committee, one member of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker and the chairs and vice-chairs of the House Banking and Finance Committee and the House Human Services Committee, the State Banking Commissioner or designee, the Director of the Department of Human Services or designee and six persons to be appointed by the Governor, four of whom shall represent commercial banks, savings banks, savings and loans associations, cooperative banks, and credit unions. However, at least one member of such committee shall represent financial institutions with assets of less than One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00). The chair of the House Banking and Finance Committee and the chair of the Senate Human Services Committee shall serve as cochairs of the committee. The committee shall meet from time to time as necessary by the call of the chairs and at a place convenient to its purpose. The legislative staffs of the House and Senate shall provide staffing as necessary for the committee. The committee shall submit a report on or before December 31, 1995, detailing the efficacy of a bank-match reporting system in Oklahoma, the types of bank-match reporting systems considered and suitable alternatives to a bank-match reporting system which would increase collection of child support. The committee shall terminate July 1, 1996.

SECTION 2. The provisions of Section 1 of this act shall not be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes.

SECTION 3. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
