SECTION 18. AMENDATORY Section 2, Chapter 354, O.S.L. 1995 (43 O.S. Supp. 1995, Section 139.1), is amended to read as follows:

Section 139.1 A. As used in this section and Section 6-201.1 of Title 47 of the Oklahoma Statutes:

1. "Licensing board" means any bureau, department, division, board, agency or commission of this state or of a municipality in this state that issues a license;

2. "Noncompliance with an order for support" means that the obligor has failed to make child support payments required by a child support order in an amount equal to the child support payable for at least ninety (90) days or has failed to make full payments pursuant to a court-ordered payment plan for at least ninety (90) days or has failed to obtain or maintain health insurance coverage as required by an order for support for at least ninety (90) days;

3. "Order for support" means any judgment or order for the support of dependent children issued by any court of this state or other state or any judgment or order issued in accordance with an administrative procedure established by state law that affords substantial due process and is subject to judicial review;

4. "Department" means the Department of Human Services;

5. "License" means a license, certificate, registration, permit, approval or other similar document issued by a licensing board granting to an individual a right or privilege to engage in a profession, occupation, or business, or a driver license or other permit issued pursuant to Title 47 of the Oklahoma Statutes;

6. "Obligor" means the person who is required to make payments pursuant to an order for support;

7. "Person entitled" means:

a. a person to whom a support debt or support obligation is owed,

b. the Department of Human Services or a public agency of another state that has the right to receive current or accrued support payments or that is providing support enforcement services, or

c. a person designated in a support order or as otherwise specified by the court; and

8. "Payment plan" includes, but is not limited to, a plan approved by the court that provides sufficient security to ensure compliance with a support order and/or that incorporates voluntary or involuntary income assignment or a similar plan for periodic payment on an arrearage and, if applicable, current and future support.

B. 1. Except as otherwise provided by this subsection, the district courts of this state are hereby authorized to order the revocation or suspension of a license or the placement of the obligor on probation who is in noncompliance with an order for support.

2. If the obligor is a licensed attorney, the court may report the matter to the Oklahoma Bar Association for appropriate action in accordance with the rules of professional conduct.

3. Pursuant to Section 6-201.1 of Title 47 of the Oklahoma Statutes, the district courts of this state are hereby authorized to order the revocation or suspension of a driver license of an obligor who is in noncompliance with an order of support. In addition, the court may, in case of extreme and unusual hardship, provide for a modification of the revocation, or suspension of the driver license of an obligor who is in noncompliance with an order of support.

4. The remedy under this section is in addition to any other enforcement remedy available to the court.

C. 1. At any hearing involving the support of a child, if the district court finds evidence presented at the hearing that an obligor is in noncompliance with an order for support and the obligor is licensed by any licensing board, the court, in addition to any other enforcement action available, may direct the licensing board to suspend or revoke the license of the obligor who is in noncompliance with the order of support until the obligor no longer is delinquent in the payments.

2. Upon a showing that a suspension or revocation or continued suspension or revocation of a license would create a significant hardship to the obligor, to the obligor's employees, to legal dependents residing in the obligor's household, or to persons, businesses, or other entities served by the obligor, the court may place the obligor on probation and allow the obligor to practice or continue to practice the obligor's profession, occupation or business. Probation shall be conditioned upon full compliance with the order. If the court grants probation, the probationary period shall not exceed three (3) years, and the terms of probation shall provide for automatic suspension or revocation of the license if the obligor does not provide monthly proof to the court and to the person entitled to support of full compliance with the order. Proof of payment may be filed with the court clerk in the manner and form as required by the court.

D. 1. When the court determines that the support debt or support obligation is paid in full, it shall direct the licensing board to terminate the order of suspension or revocation of the license or probation of the obligor. The court shall send a copy of the order to the licensing board, the obligor and the person entitled to support.

2. Entry of this order does not limit the ability of the court to issue a new order requiring the licensing board to revoke or suspend the license of the same obligor in the event of another delinquency.

E. 1. The court shall not lift the suspension or revocation of the license or terminate the probation of the obligor until the obligor files with the court proof showing that the obligor is current in the obligor's payments as required by the court.

2. Before the court orders termination of probation or removal of a suspension or revocation, the court shall provide written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person entitled to child support informing the person that the obligor has proven to the satisfaction of the court that the obligor is current in the payments. The notice shall also include an opportunity for the person entitled to child support to protest the termination or removal, upon a claim and proof that the obligor is not current in the obligor's payments. A protest must be commenced within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice and, upon the filing of a protest, the matter shall be set for hearing. At the hearing, the obligor shall submit proof that the obligor is current in the payments as required by the court.

F. Upon receipt of a court order to suspend or revoke the license of an obligor or end probation, the licensing board shall implement the suspension or revocation of the license or placement of the obligor on probation by:

1. Determining if the licensing board has issued a license to the individual whose name appears on the order for support;

2. Notifying the obligor of the suspension, revocation or probation;

3. Demanding surrender of the license, if required;

4. Entering the suspension or revocation of the license or probation on the appropriate records; and

5. Reporting the suspension or revocation of the license or the probation as appropriate.

G. An order, issued by the court, directing the licensing board to suspend or revoke the license of the obligor or place the obligor on probation shall be processed by the licensing board without any additional review or hearing. An order, issued by the court, directing the licensing board to suspend or revoke the license of the obligor or place the obligor on probation shall be implemented by the licensing board and shall continue until the court, judicial court of review, or Court of Civil Appeals advises the licensing board by order that the suspension or revocation or probation is terminated.

H. The licensing board has no jurisdiction to modify, remand, reverse, vacate, or stay the order of the court for the suspension or revocation of a license or placement of the obligor on probation.

I. In the event of suspension, revocation of a license, or a probation of the obligor, any funds paid by the obligor to the licensing board for costs related to issuance, renewal, or maintenance of a license shall not be refunded to the obligor.

J. A licensing board may charge the obligor a fee to cover the administrative costs incurred by the licensing board to administer the provisions of this section. Fees collected pursuant to this section by a licensing board which has an agency revolving fund shall be deposited in the agency revolving fund for the use by the licensing board to pay the costs of administering this section. Otherwise, the administrative costs shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund of the state.

K. Each licensing board shall promulgate rules necessary for the implementation and administration of this section.

L. The licensing board is exempt from liability to the obligor for activities conducted in compliance with this section.

Section 240.19 A. Upon receipt of an administrative order from the Department of Human Services to suspend or revoke the license of an obligor or placement of the obligor on probation, the licensing board shall implement the suspension or revocation of the license or probation of the obligor by:

4. Entering the suspension, revocation, or probation on the appropriate records; and
5. Reporting the suspension, revocation, or probation, as appropriate.

B. An order, issued by the Department, directing the licensing board to suspend or revoke a license or place the obligor on probation shall be processed by the licensing board without any additional review or hearing.

C. An order, issued by the Department, directing the licensing board to suspend or revoke the license of the obligor or place the obligor on probation shall be implemented by the licensing board and shall continue until the OAH, the district court, judicial court of review, or Court of Civil Appeals advises the licensing board by order, that the suspension, revocation, or probation is terminated.

D. The licensing board shall have no jurisdiction to modify, remand, reverse, vacate, or stay the order of the Department for the suspension or revocation of a license, or placing the obligor on probation.

E. In the event of suspension or revocation of a license, or probation of the obligor, any funds paid by the obligor to the licensing board for costs related to issuance, renewal, or maintenance of a license shall not be refunded to the obligor.

F. The licensing board is exempt from liability to the obligor for activities conducted in compliance with this section.
