An Act relating to revenue and taxation; amending 68 O.S. 1991, Section 2887, which relates to ad valorem taxes; modifying property exempt from ad valorem taxation; requiring posting of notice of resale on certain property; providing procedures therefor; clarifying language; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 68 O.S. 1991, Section 2887, is amended to read as follows:

Section 2887. The following property shall be exempt from ad valorem taxation:

1. All property of the United States, and such property as may be exempt by reason of treaty stipulations existing at statehood between the Indians and the United States government, or by reason of federal laws in effect at statehood, during the time such treaties or federal laws are in force and effect. In instances where a federal agency has obtained title to property through foreclosure, voluntary or involuntary liquidation or bankruptcy, which was previously subject to ad valorem taxation, the property may continue to be assessed for ad valorem taxes if such federal agency has agreed to pay such taxes;

2. All property of this state, and of the counties, school districts, and municipalities of this state, including property acquired for the use of such entities pursuant to the terms of a lease-purchase agreement which provides for the passage of title or the release of security interest, if applicable, upon payment of all rental payments and an additional nominal amount;

3. All property of any college or school, provided such property is devoted exclusively and directly to the appropriate objects of such college or school within this state and all property used exclusively for nonprofit schools and colleges;

4. The books, papers, furniture and scientific or other apparatus pertaining to any institution, college or society referred to in paragraph 3 of this section, and devoted exclusively and directly for the purpose above contemplated, and the like property of students in any such institution or college, while such property is used for the purpose of their education;

5. All fraternal orphan homes and other orphan homes;

6. All property used for free public libraries, free museums, public cemeteries, or free public schools;

7. All property used exclusively and directly for fraternal or religious purposes within this state. For purposes of administering the exemption authorized by this section and in order to determine whether a single family residential property is used exclusively and directly for fraternal or religious purposes, the fair cash value of a single family residential property, for which an exemption is claimed as authorized by this subsection, in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) for the applicable assessment year shall not be exempt from taxation;

8. All property of any charitable institution organized or chartered under the laws of this state as a nonprofit or charitable institution, provided the net income from such property is used exclusively within this state for charitable purposes and no part of such income inures to the benefit of any private stockholder;

9. All property used exclusively and directly for charitable purposes within this state, provided the charity using said property does not pay any rent or remuneration to the owner thereof unless the owner is a charitable institution described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C., Section 501(c)(3), or a veterans' organization described in Section 501(c)(19) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C., Section 501(c)(19);

10. All property of any hospital established, organized and operated by any person, partnership, association, organization, trust, or corporation, as a nonprofit and charitable hospital, provided the property and net income from such hospital are used directly, solely, and exclusively within this state for charitable purposes and that no part of such income shall inure to the benefit of any individual, person, partner, shareholder, or stockholder, and provided further that such hospital facilities shall be open to the public without discrimination as to race, color or creed and regardless of ability to pay, and that such hospital is licensed and otherwise complies with the laws of this state relating to the licensing and regulation of hospitals;

11. All libraries and office equipment of ministers of the Gospel actively engaged in ministerial work in the State of Oklahoma, where said libraries and office equipment are being used by said ministers in their ministerial work, shall be deemed to be used exclusively for religious purposes and are declared to be within the meaning of the term "religious purposes" as used in Article X, Section 6 of the Constitution of the State of Oklahoma;

12. Household goods, tools, implements and livestock of every person maintaining a home, not exceeding One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) in value or One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) in value if Article X, Section 6 of the Oklahoma Constitution provides for an exemption in such amount; and in addition thereto, there shall be exempt from taxation on personal property the further sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) to all enlisted and commissioned personnel, whether on active duty or honorably discharged, who served in the Armed Forces of the United States during:

- a. the Spanish-American War;
- b. the period beginning on April 6, 1917, and ending on July 2, 1921;
- c. the period beginning on December 6, 1941, and ending on such date as the state of national emergency as declared by the President of the United States shall cease to exist; or
- d. any other or future period during which a state of national emergency shall have been or shall be declared to exist by the Congress or the President of the United States.

All surviving spouses made so by the death of such enlisted or commissioned personnel, who are bona fide residents of this state, shall be entitled to the above additional exemption provided in this paragraph;

13. Family portraits;

14. All food and fuel provided in kind for the use of the family not to exceed provisions for one (1) year's time, and all grain and forage necessary to maintain for one (1) year the livestock used to provide food for the family. No person from whom pay is received or expected for board shall be considered a member of the family within the intent and meaning of this paragraph;

15. All growing crops; and

16. All game animals, fowl and reptile, which are not being grown for food or sale and which are kept exclusively for propagation or exhibition, in private grounds or public parks in this state.

SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3106.1 of Title 68, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

If the real property to be sold is listed as homestead property on the last tax rolls, then in addition to all other notification requirements, the county treasurer shall also cause the notice of resale to be posted on the front door of the subject property by the county sheriff at least thirty (30) days prior to such resale. The cost of said posting shall be added to the amount necessary to redeem the property from resale or to purchase the property at resale.

SECTION 3. This act shall become effective July 1, 1996.

SECTION 4. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
