

ENROLLED HOUSE
BILL NO. 1434

By: Deutschendorf and Perry
of the House

and

Robinson of the Senate

An Act relating to telecommunications; requiring all state agencies to convert certain computer systems for the millennium by a certain date; requiring state agencies to report on the conversion by a certain date; stating content of the report; prohibiting state agencies from making certain expenditures unless included in the agency long-range plan; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 41.5o of Title 62, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. All agencies of the executive branch of this state presently using date-dependent computer systems, including but not limited to legacy systems, programs, databases and security systems, shall have completed work on converting the systems for the millennium, the year 2000, by January 1, 1999.

B. On or before July 1, 1999, each agency which has converted the computer systems used by the agency for the millennium shall file a report with the Information Services Division of the Office of State Finance reporting on operations of the system after the conversion and outlining any system problems which the agency may still be experiencing and plans the agency has to address any continuing problems.

C. No agency shall purchase additional hardware or software or add additional personnel to address the issue of converting and preparing computer systems for the millennium unless the purchase has been included in the long-range plan of the agency submitted to the Information Services Division of the Office of State Finance as required in Section 41.5j of Title 62 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 1997.

Passed the House of Representatives the 29th day of May, 1997.

Speaker of the House of Representatives

Passed the Senate the 29th day of May, 1997.
