An Act relating to persons with developmental disabilities; stating legislative intent; prohibiting closure of certain state-administered resource centers; and providing for codification.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3050 of Title 56, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. The Department of Human Services shall not close state-administered resource centers that provide full-time residential care and services to persons with developmental disabilities or prohibit full-time residential care or services at state-administered resource centers until otherwise provided by the Legislature.

B. The Department shall accept clients with developmental disabilities for whom it has been determined that full-time residential care and services are needed at state-administered resource centers.
