

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

2nd Session of the 46th Legislature (1998)

HOUSE CONCURRENT
RESOLUTION NO. 1092

By: Vaughn of the House

and

Snyder of the Senate

AS INTRODUCED

A Concurrent Resolution recognizing Edmond Memorial High School for its fund-raising event entitled "Swine Week"; and directing distribution.

WHEREAS, one of the definitions in Funk & Wagnalls Dictionary for swine is a "low, greedy, stupid or vicious person"; and

WHEREAS, the Edmond Memorial High School student body exemplifies just the opposite of that definition, being a student body which is high on the scale of generosity, intelligence and creativity enough to invent fund-raising events which have benefited a very sick child, and compassionate to the point of being a great example for all of the student bodies in this great state; and

WHEREAS, Edmond Memorial High School hosts "Swine Week" which this year will benefit a small six-year-old boy, Carson Scott, who suffers from an aggressive brain tumor called medulloblastoma. This has caused Carson to go through many expensive medical procedures and has caused Carson's mother to stay home and teach him as a homebound student; and

WHEREAS, the chairpersons, Angie Nevius and Scott Osborne, led the students in raising $63,711.78 for the benefit of Carson; and

WHEREAS, Swine Week involves students participating in a football game, skate night, the showing of the movie "Austin Powers", a Research Paper Revenge by the National Honor Society, a basketball tournament by the Spanish Club and a ticket sale to scalp the economics teacher, Tina Page; and

WHEREAS, the student body of Edmond Memorial High School needs to know that not only the Legislature, but all citizens of this great state commend them for their selfless actions to help Carson Scott and his family to face today and face tomorrow's future.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 2ND SESSION OF THE 46TH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE, THE SENATE CONCURRING THEREIN:

THAT the Oklahoma Legislature recognizes Edmond Memorial High School for its fund-raising event entitled "Swine Week".

THAT copies of this resolution shall be distributed to the Chairpersons of Swine Week, Angie Nevius and Scott Osborne, the Principal of Edmond Memorial High School, Larry Maxwell, and the Superintendent of Edmond Public Schools, Dr. Rex A. Carr.
