The Commissioner shall have authority, at any time, to require the applicant to fully disclose the identity of all stockholders, partners, officers, and employees, and the Commissioner may, in the exercise of discretion, refuse to issue a license in the name of any firm, partnership, or corporation or other entity if not satisfied that any officer, employee, stockholder, or partner thereof who may materially influence the applicant's conduct meets the standards of this act.

E. A license issued to a firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity authorizes all members, officers, and designated employees to act as viatical settlement providers under the license, and all such persons must be named in the application and any supplements to the application.
