~~4.~~ 3. "Delayed sentence" means a procedure by which the defendant is found guilty of a crime, whether upon a verdict or plea of guilty or upon a plea of nolo contendere, and is sentenced to a term of imprisonment for which the date to begin serving the imprisonment term is suspended up to twelve (12) months, and the defendant is released by the court subject to conditional requirements which must be completed by the date set to begin serving the term of imprisonment; and

~~5.~~ 4. "Supervision" means a court-ordered conditional requirement of a sentence which provides active monitoring through varying types and numbers of contacts by an agency, a person designated by the court, or by an electronic device as specified in the court order for a convicted offender receiving ~~a sentence of probation,~~ a suspended sentence, a split sentence, or a delayed sentence.

B. At the time of sentencing, when a defendant is convicted of a crime and no death penalty or sentence of life without parole is imposed, the court shall have authority to suspend the punishment, in whole or in part, except where the law specifically prohibits probation or a suspended sentence. ~~The court may, after imposing the punishment for the offense, suspend that punishment by ordering a sentence to probation, a suspended sentence with conditional requirements, a split sentence, or a delayed sentence. C. 1. The requirement for supervision shall be initiated upon an order from the court. Supervision shall not exceed two (2) years, except as otherwise provided in this section. Supervision services may be provided by:

- a. the Department of Corrections,
- b. a qualified provider for the local community sentencing system, or
- c. a qualified person designated by the court.

When the court does not specify the supervising agency or person, supervision shall be provided by the Department of Corrections. In the case of a person convicted of a sex offense, supervision shall not be limited to two (2) years but shall not extend beyond the length of the sentence imposed. Provided further, any supervision authorized by this section may be extended for a period not to exceed the expiration of the maximum term of the sentence upon a finding by the court after notice and hearing that the best interests of the public and the defendant will be served by an extended period of supervision; ~~provided, however, the county may be required to reimburse the supervising agency for the extended supervision for any periods beyond the provisions of this section.~~

2. The type of supervision shall be initially specified by the court and may ~~later~~ be modified as ~~provided in this section as~~ the offender demonstrates compliance or noncompliance with the court-ordered conditions. The supervising agency shall establish the fee in an amount not to exceed Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month based upon the offender's ability to pay. In hardship cases, the supervising agency shall expressly waive all or part of the fee. No supervisory agency shall deny any offender services for the sole reason that the offender is indigent.

4. During any period of supervision, the agency or person designated to monitor a defendant shall be responsible for seeing that the defendant pays the restitution, repayments, reimbursements, fees, fines, and costs ordered by the court to the designated person and that the defendant ~~performs the conditions and~~ completes the ~~programs~~ required by the terms of the sentence. ~~The designated monitoring agency or person shall ensure that all payments made by the defendant are forwarded to the appropriate person or entity in a timely manner.~~

D. 1. During any period of a suspended sentence or a split sentence, when the defendant is not benefiting from the prescribed conditions as ordered by the court, or when the defendant has violated any condition of the sentence not constituting a criminal offense, or when the defendant has successfully completed any condition of a sentence, the following persons may file a motion with the court for a modification of the conditions of the sentence:

The notice shall be given not less than ~~three (3)~~ five (5) days prior to the hearing of the motion.

4. Following the hearing, the court shall enter the appropriate modification to the conditions of the sentence, if any. The court may modify and impose any condition which is appropriate for the circumstances; provided, no corporal punishment shall be imposed and no condition shall be imposed which when taken in its entirety is greater than the original prescribed sentence which is subject to the suspension. The defendant may be ordered to serve a temporary period of incarceration in the county jail not to exceed ~~five (5)~~ thirty (30) days as a disciplinary sanction for failure to comply with the conditions of the sentence after proper notice and hearing. The defendant shall be given day-for-day credit on the sentence for any period of incarceration served in the county jail as a disciplinary sanction. The cost of any county jail incarceration as a disciplinary sanction shall be not more than the maximum amount provided in subsection B of Section 38 of Title 57 of the Oklahoma Statutes and shall be paid by:

The district attorney shall have the right to state any objections to a delayed sentence on the record but the decision of the judge shall be final. After the term of incarceration has been pronounced and the date to begin serving the incarceration has been ordered, the court may offer to the defendant the opportunity to complete certain specific conditions as provided for in subsection F of this section before the date to begin serving that sentence. The delayed sentence shall provide that in exchange for completing the court-ordered conditions before the date set to begin serving the term of imprisonment, the court shall either modify the sentence or withdraw the order imposing the term of incarceration. The maximum term a sentence may be delayed is twelve (12) months.

2. The court shall not have authority to commit the defendant to the custody of the Department of Corrections as a condition of the delayed sentence pursuant to the provisions of this section, ~~provided, however, the court may commit the person to the county jail subject to available funding to pay the sheriff.~~

3. The court shall have no authority to order a delayed sentence pursuant to the provisions of this section without the defendant voluntarily agreeing to complete the required conditions.

4. On the date set for the execution of the sentence, the court shall either require the term of incarceration to begin to be served if the defendant has failed to complete the conditions required by the court, or the court shall either modify the sentence or withdraw the order imposing the term of incarceration if the offender has successfully completed the conditions required by the court.

When the accused is required to participate or consult with any service provider, a program fee may be required, unless the fee would impose an unnecessary hardship on the person. The program fee shall be established by the service provider based upon a sliding scale. ~~Any state agency called upon for assistance in a deferred prosecution program by any district attorney shall render such services and assistance subject to funds available. Any supervision fee or program fee authorized by this section may be waived in whole or part when the accused is indigent and paid by the accused.~~ No person who is otherwise qualified for a deferred prosecution program shall be denied services or supervision based solely on the person's inability to pay a fee or fees.

The agreement between the parties may require the accused to pay a victim compensation assessment pursuant to the provisions of Section 142.18 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes. The amount of such assessment shall be agreed to by the parties and shall be within the amounts specified in Section 142.18 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes for the offense charged.

~~2.~~ 3. County jail confinement for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days or the maximum amount of jail time provided for the offense, if it is less than ninety (90) days; provided however, the state shall not pay for any confinement ordered pursuant to the provisions of this section;

~~3.~~ 4. Pay an amount as reimbursement for reasonable attorney fee, to be paid into the court fund, if a court-appointed attorney has been provided to defendant;

~~4.~~ 5. Be supervised in the community for a period not to exceed two (2) years. No person shall be denied supervision based solely on the person's inability to pay a fee;

~~5.~~ 6. Pay into the court fund a monthly amount not exceeding Forty Dollars ($40.00) per month during any period during which the proceedings are deferred when the defendant is not to be supervised in the community. No person, agency or facility operating an alcohol and drug substance abuse evaluation program certified by the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services shall solicit or refer any person evaluated pursuant to this subsection for any treatment program or alcohol and drug substance abuse service in which the person, agency or facility has a vested interest; however, this provision shall not be construed to prohibit the court from ordering participation in or any person from voluntarily utilizing a treatment program or alcohol and drug substance abuse service offered by such person, agency or facility. Any evaluation report submitted to the court pursuant to this subsection shall be handled in a manner which will keep the report confidential from the general public's review. The procedure to expunge the defendant's record shall be as follows:

D. Upon order of the court, the provisions of subsection C of this section shall be retroactive.

E. Upon violation of any condition of the deferred judgment, the court may enter a judgment of guilt and proceed as provided in Section 991a of this title or may modify any condition imposed. Provided, however, if the deferred judgment is for a felony offense, and the defendant commits another felony offense, the defendant shall not be allowed bail pending appeal.

F. The deferred judgment procedure described in this section shall only apply to defendants not having been previously convicted of a felony offense.

Provided, the court may waive this prohibition upon written application of the district attorney. Both the application and the waiver shall be made a part of the record of the case.

G. The deferred judgment procedure described in this section shall not apply to defendants who plead guilty or nolo contendere to a sex offense. The term "sex offense" shall not include a violation of paragraph 1 of subsection A of Section 1021 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

H. SECTION 65. AMENDATORY Section 14, Chapter 355, O.S.L. 1994 (22 O.S. Supp. 1998, Section 1514), is amended to read as follows:

Section 1514. The following purposes and policies of the criminal justice and corrections systems are hereby established:

1. Protection of the public. Incarceration should be viewed by the court both as punishment and as a means of protecting the public. Limitations on the freedom of the offender and the appropriate level of custody should be dictated in the first instance by the nature of the offense, the violent character of the offender, the proclivity of the offender to engage in criminal conduct as demonstrated by ~~his~~ a criminal record, and the sound judgment of the sentencing court after taking into account all of the relevant aggravating and mitigating factors involved in the offender's record of criminal conduct.

2. Punishment of the offender. After the interests of public protection have been addressed, consideration should be given to restriction of the liberty of the offender in such manner and to such extent as is necessary to demonstrate clearly that the offender's conduct is unacceptable to society and to discourage a repetition of such conduct. In determining the appropriate punishment, the court should consider a range of sanctions at the state or community level which may include incarceration, various degrees of restrictions on the offender's liberty including house arrest, electronic monitoring, various degrees of supervision, community penalties, community service, restitution, reparation, or fines.

3. Rehabilitation of the offender. Every sentencing plan should consider treatment and rehabilitative needs of the offender to the extent that it addresses the cause of the criminal behavior and, therefore, might assist in correcting such behavior. The offender should be enrolled in a program of rehabilitation over a definite minimal period of time. The program of rehabilitation should involve work and recreation and may involve education, psychological or psychiatric counseling, treatment for alcohol or drug abuse and sexual aggression either within or without the prison walls as the individual case may indicate. The court may recommend remedies for alcoholism, substance abuse, mental illness, education and employment deficiencies, and may order community-based offenders to pay for such treatment to the extent the offender is able. Public institutions should respond to the court order at no cost to the indigent offender. Where treatment is not available from public institutions, the state should purchase appropriate treatment from the private sector.

4. Restitution and reparation. When appropriate, the sentencing plan should provide for restitution or reparation to the victim or victims, whether they be individual citizens, corporations, or society as a whole, to be paid as soon as practicable. Such restitution or reparation should include repayment for any property stolen or damaged, medical costs and lost wages of the victims, court costs and reasonable costs to cover pretrial detention, and restitution to the community through community service. In those cases where the offender can be punished and rehabilitated outside of prison without jeopardizing the security of the society at large in their persons or property, it is appropriate and encouraged that the offender pay his or her debt to society through a range of punishments which are alternative to incarceration. The court should order such supervision or restrictions as deemed necessary for the offender to comply with the restitution orders. Failure to comply should result in stricter measures but should not remove the obligation of the offender to repay the victim.

5. Work policy for offenders. It is the policy of this state that offenders should work when reasonably possible, either at jobs in the private sector to pay restitution and support their dependents, or at community service jobs that benefit the public, or at useful work while in prison or jail, or at educational or treatment endeavors as a part of a rehabilitation program. Offenders should be offered the opportunity to reduce the duration of their sentences by earning "time" credit for work endeavors in achieving vocational or educational skill levels. Prisoners who are able and do not work or who refuse to participate in treatment programs should be prohibited from enjoying privileges which may be provided to inmates beyond those required by law.

6. Responsibility of Department of Corrections. It is the goal of the Department of Corrections to provide adequate prison space to ensure that those sentenced to prison will remain incarcerated until such time as ~~they~~ the offender can be safely released, or until ~~their~~ the active sentences are completed, and to provide community-based supervision for those offenders selected for supervised probation and parole by the courts and the Pardon and Parole Board.

It is the mission of the Department to provide housing, clothing, food and medical care to its inmates, to maintain a safe and secure prison system, to keep accurate records, to offer job training, education, counseling, work and treatment programs deemed appropriate to monitor and advance the rehabilitative progress of its inmates, to provide a fair and orderly progression through custody levels, and to make data and recommendations regarding parole available to the Pardon and Parole Board. As an inmate demonstrates that he or she is no longer a threat to society, that the punishment has been effective and that a program of rehabilitation is showing progress, the inmate's level of custody may be commensurately reduced in an orderly progression through custody levels to parole and release from supervision.

It is the mission of the Department of Corrections to receive convicted offenders selected by the courts and the Pardon and Parole Board and to protect society through a coordinated program of community supervision which provides realistic opportunities for probationers and parolees to develop skills necessary to adjust to free society. As a probationer or parolee demonstrates that the supervision has been effective and that a community treatment program is showing progress, the level of supervision may be commensurately reduced in an orderly progression to prepare for release from supervision.

SECTION 66. AMENDATORY Section 33, Chapter 133, O.S.L. 1997 (22 O.S. Supp. 1998, Section 1516), is amended to read as follows:

C. Notice shall be given by the party seeking forfeiture and sale according to the following methods:

D. Within sixty (60) days after the mailing and publication of the notice, the owner of the property and any other party in interest or claimant may file a verified answer and claim to the property described in the notice.

E. F. If a verified answer is filed, the forfeiture for sale proceeding shall be set for hearing not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days after the filing of the answer.

G. At a hearing on the forfeiture the evidence of ownership and exemption under Section 1 of Title 31 of the Oklahoma Statutes shall be satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence.

I. In the event of such proof, the court shall order the property released to the bona fide owner, lienholder, mortgagee or vendor if the amount due such party is equal to, or in excess of, the value of the property as of the date of the seizure, it being the intention of this section to forfeit only the right, title or interest of the offender.

J. If the amount due to such person is less than the value of the property, or if no bona fide claim is established, the property shall be forfeited and sold under judgment of the court, as on sale upon execution.

K. Property taken or detained under this section shall not be repleviable, but shall be deemed to be in the custody of the office of the district attorney of the county in which the property was seized, subject only to the orders and decrees of the court having jurisdiction thereof.

3. To the payment of court costs and costs of the sheriff in conducting the sale;

4. To the payment of restitution to the victim; and

5. The balance of the proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the defendant.

M. If the court finds that the party seeking the forfeiture failed to satisfy the requirements provided for in subsection G of this section, the court shall order the property released to the owner or owners.

N. Upon failure to give the notice of seizure and intended forfeiture as provided in subsections B and C of this section, any owner or party in interest may petition the court for return of the property. The court shall schedule a hearing within ten (10) days of the filing of the petition for return of the property. The petitioner shall be required to prove ownership interest or other claim to the property, and the court shall return the property if the claim is proved by a preponderance of the evidence and the property is not otherwise required as evidence in a criminal prosecution. Failure to give the notice of seizure and intended forfeiture shall not be construed to prohibit, deny, void or dismiss any criminal prosecution or serve as grounds for any motion to suppress evidence.

O. In addition to other provisions of this section, seized property shall be released upon the following conditions:

1. Dismissal of a forfeiture proceeding;

2. Failure to file criminal charges within ninety (90) days from the date of seizure, provided the property is held as evidence and not forfeited to the state or returned to an owner or party in interest as provided in subsection N of this section. Provided, however, the district attorney may request the court to grant an extension beyond the ninety-day limitation for filing charges if a criminal investigation may result in charges being filed after that time. If an extension to file criminal charges is granted, the seized property may be held until the court orders the property released; or

3. Dismissal or acquittal of criminal charges, provided the property is held as evidence and not forfeited to the state or returned to an owner or party in interest as provided in subsection N of this section.

In addition, any inmate removed from the Electronic Monitoring Program for violation of any rule, regulation or condition of the program and reassigned to imprisonment in a correctional facility shall not be eligible for consideration for the Specialized Parole Program until after the expiration of at least twelve (12) consecutive months of imprisonment at a correctional facility.

E. If an inmate violates any rule, regulation or condition of the program, the Department may take necessary disciplinary action consistent with the rules established pursuant to this act, including reassignment to a higher level of security or removing the inmate from the program with reassignment to imprisonment in a correctional facility. Any inmate who escapes from the Electronic Monitoring Program shall be subject to the provisions of Section 443 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

F. Inmates assigned to the Electronic Monitoring Program shall not be allowed to waive consideration or recommendation for parole.

G. The district attorney shall disseminate such information to victims of the crime for which the inmate is serving sentence, if any, when the victims are known to live in the same city, town or county.

H. An inmate assigned to the Electronic Monitoring Program may be required to pay the Department of Corrections for all or part of any monitoring equipment or fee, substance abuse treatment program or follow-up treatment expense, supervision cost, or other costs while assigned to the program. The Department shall determine whether the inmate has the ability to pay all or part of such fee or costs.
