in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 3011 of Title 12, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

Upon the trial of any criminal case involving a homicide, a photograph of the victim of the crime while living may be used to establish the identity of the victim of the homicide.

SECTION 2. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 2404.1 of Title 12, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. In criminal prosecutions involving domestic violence in which the defendant and the victim named in the information have engaged in an intimate relationship as of the time alleged in the information, evidence of any other acts of domestic violence between the defendant and the victim constitute other acts or transactions for the purposes of this section, and the court may authorize the admission of evidence as provided in subsection C of this section.

B. The proponent of evidence of other acts or transactions under this section shall advise the trial court by notice of such evidence and shall specify whether the evidence is offered to show a common plan, scheme, design, identity, modus operandi, motive, or guilty knowledge or for some other purpose.

C. Upon the offer of proof under subsection B of this section, the trial court shall determine whether the probative value of the evidence of similar acts or transactions is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice to the defendant, confusion of the issues, or misleading of the jury if the evidence is allowed or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence.

D. Upon admitting evidence of other acts or transactions into evidence pursuant to this section and again in the general charge to the jury, the trial court shall direct the jury as to the limited purpose for which the evidence is admitted and for which the jury may consider it.

SECTION 3. AMENDATORY 21 O.S. 1991, Section 142.20, as last amended by Section 11, Chapter 325, O.S.L. 1993 (21 O.S. Supp. 1999, Section 142.20), is amended to read as follows:

E. Effective July 1, 1993, the District Attorneys Council is hereby authorized to transfer up to ~~One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00)~~ Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000.00) from the Crime Victims Compensation Fund to the Sexual Assault Examination Fund for the payment of sexual assault forensic examinations and medications, pursuant to this section.
