ENGROSSED

Senate Bill No. 614

As Amended

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 614 -- By ROZELL of the Senate and CULVER of the House.

AN ACT RELATING TO CRIMINAL PROCEDURE; AMENDING 22 O.S. 1991, SECTION 991F, AS LAST AMENDED BY SECTION 1, CHAPTER 410, O.S.L. 1998 (22 O.S. SUPP. 1998, SECTION 991F), WHICH RELATES TO VICTIM RESTITUTION; AUTHORIZING RESTITUTION NEGOTIATIONS; PROHIBITING WAIVER OF RESTITUTION UNDER CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES; REQUIRING CONSENT OF VICTIM UNDER CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES; MANDATING AVAILABILITY OF RECONCILIATION PROGRAMS; AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 1991, Section 991f, as last amended by Section 1, Chapter 410, O.S.L. 1998 (22 O.S. Supp. 1998, Section 991f), is amended to read as follows:

Section 991f. A. For the purposes of any provision of Title 22 of the Oklahoma Statutes relating to criminal sentencing and restitution orders:

1. "Restitution" shall mean the sum to be paid by the defendant to the victim of the criminal act to compensate that victim for the economic loss suffered as a direct result of the criminal act of the defendant;

2. "Victim" means any person, partnership or corporation that suffers an economic loss as a direct result of the criminal act of another person; and

3. "Economic loss" means actual economic detriment suffered by the victim consisting of medical expenses actually incurred, damage to real and personal property and any other out-of-pocket expenses reasonably incurred as the direct result of the criminal act of the defendant. No other elements of damage shall be included.

B. In all criminal prosecutions and juvenile proceedings in this state, when the court enters an order directing the offender to pay restitution to any victim for economic loss or to pay to the state any fines, fees or assessments, the order, for purposes of validity and collection, shall not be limited to the maximum term of imprisonment for which the offender could have been sentenced, nor limited to any term of probation, parole, or extension thereof, nor expire until fully satisfied. The court order for restitution, fines, fees or assessments shall remain a continuing obligation of the offender until fully satisfied, and the obligation shall not be considered a debt, nor shall the obligation be dischargeable in any bankruptcy proceeding. The court order shall continue in full force and effect with the supervision of the state until fully satisfied, and the state shall use all methods of collection authorized by law.

C. 1. Upon conviction for any crime wherein property has been stolen, converted or otherwise unlawfully obtained, or its value substantially decreased as a direct result of the crime, or wherein the crime victim suffered injury, loss of income, or out-of-pocket loss, the individuals criminally responsible shall be sentenced to make restitution in addition to the punishments prescribed by law.

2. The court shall order full restitution based upon the following considerations:

- a. the nature and amount of restitution shall be sufficient to restore the crime victim to the equivalent economic status existing prior to the losses sustained as a direct result of the crime, but shall not allow the crime victim to receive payment in excess of the losses sustained, and
- b. the amount of restitution shall be established regardless of the financial resources of the offender.

3. The court:

- a. may direct the return of property to be made as soon as practicable and make an award of restitution in the amount of the loss of value to the property itself as a direct result of the crime, including out-of-pocket expenses incurred for loss of use of the property, the cost to return the property to the victim or to restore the property to its pre-crime condition whichever may be appropriate under the circumstances,

- b. may order restitution in a lump sum or by such schedules as may be established and adjusted by the court clerk consistent with the order of the court,
- c. shall have the authority to amend or alter any order of restitution made pursuant to this section providing that the court of minor judiciary state its reasons and conclusions as a matter of record for any change or amendment to any previous order, and
- d. shall consider any pre-existing orders imposed on the defendant, including, but not limited to, orders imposed under civil and criminal proceedings.

D. If restitution to more than one person, agency or entity is set at the same time, the court shall establish the following priorities of payment:

1. The crime victim or victims; and

2. Any other government agency which has provided reimbursement to the victim as a result of the offender's criminal conduct.

E. 1. The district attorney's office shall present the crime victim's restitution claim to the court following the conviction of the offender or the restitution provisions shall be included in the written plea agreement presented to the court in which case the restitution claim shall be reviewed by the judge prior to acceptance of the plea agreement.

2. At the initiation of the prosecution of the defendant, the district attorney's office shall provide all identifiable crime victims with written and oral information explaining their rights and responsibilities established under this section, including the right to participate in a victim/offender reconciliation program and negotiate restitution pursuant to subsection Q of this section.

3. The district attorney's office shall provide all crime victims, regardless of whether the crime victim makes a specific request, with an official request for restitution form to be completed and signed by the crime victim, and to include all invoices, bills, receipts, and other evidence of injury, loss of earnings and out-of-pocket loss. This form shall be filed with any victim impact statement to be included in the judgment and sentence. Every crime victim receiving the restitution claim form shall be provided assistance and direction to properly complete the form. Such assistance may be provided by the victim/offender reconciliation program.

4. The official restitution request form shall be presented in all cases regardless of whether the case is brought to trial. In a plea bargain, the district attorney in every case where the victim has suffered economic loss, shall, as a part of the plea bargain, require that the offender pay restitution to the crime victim. The requirement for restitution shall not be waived by the district attorney in any plea bargain, if there is an identifiable victim.

F. The crime victim shall provide all documentation and evidence of compensation or reimbursement from insurance companies or agencies of this state, any other state, or the federal government received as a direct result of the crime for injury, loss of earnings or out-of-pocket loss.

G. The court shall, upon motion by the crime victim, redact from the submitted documentation all personal information relating to the crime victim that does not directly and necessarily establish the authenticity of any document or substantiate the asserted amount of the restitution claim.

H. The unexcused failure or refusal of the crime victim to provide all or part of the requisite information prior to the sentencing, unless disclosure is deferred by the court, shall constitute a waiver of any grounds to appeal or seek future amendment or alteration of the restitution order predicated on the undisclosed available information. The court shall order the offender to submit either as part of the pre-sentence investigation or assessment and evaluation required for a community sentence or, if no pre-sentence investigation is conducted, in advance of the sentencing proceeding such information as the court may direct and finds necessary to be disclosed for the purpose of ascertaining the type and manner of restitution to be ordered. Such information shall be made available to the victim/offender reconciliation program when restitution negotiations are begun if restitution is being negotiated prior to trial. The court may accept the negotiated agreement between the victim and offender for restitution without further inquiry, if the agreement is signed and notarized by both parties.

I. The willful failure or refusal of the offender to provide all or part of the requisite information prior to the sentencing, unless disclosure is deferred by the court shall not deprive the court of the authority to set restitution or set the schedule of payment. The willful failure or refusal of the offender to provide all or part of the requisite information prior to the sentencing, unless disclosure is deferred by the court, shall constitute a waiver of any grounds to appeal or seek future amendment or alteration of the restitution order predicated on the undisclosed information. The willful failure or refusal of the offender to provide all or part of the requisite information prior to sentencing, unless disclosure is deferred by the court, shall constitute an act of contempt.

J. The court shall conduct such hearings or proceedings as it deems necessary to set restitution and payment schedules at the time of sentencing or may bifurcate the sentencing and defer the hearing or proceedings relating to the imposition of restitution as justice may require including deferral of court proceedings until the victim/offender reconciliation program can conduct the necessary interviews with both victim and offender and attempt negotiation of the restitution claim. Amendments or alterations to the restitution order may be made upon the court's own motion, petition by the crime victim ~~or~~, petition by the offender, or petition by the victim/offender reconciliation program.

K. An offender who files a meritless or frivolous petition for amendment or alteration to the restitution order shall pay the costs of the proceeding on the petition and shall have added to the existing restitution order the additional loss of earnings and out-of-pocket loss incurred by the crime victim in responding to the petition.

L. The restitution request form shall be promulgated by the District Attorneys Council and provided to all district attorney offices.

M. If a defendant who is financially able refuses or neglects to pay restitution as ordered by this section, payment may be enforced:

1. By contempt of court as provided in subsection A of Section 566 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes with imprisonment or fine or both;

2. In the same manner as prescribed in subsection N of this section for a defendant who is without means to make such restitution payment; or

3. Revocation of the criminal sentence if the sentence imposed was a suspended or deferred sentence or a community sentence.

N. If the defendant is without means to pay the restitution, the judge may direct the total amount due, or any portion thereof, to be entered upon the court minutes and to be certified in the district court of the county where it shall then be entered upon the district court judgment docket and shall have the full force and effect of a district court judgment in a civil case. Thereupon the same remedies shall be available for the enforcement of the judgment as are available to enforce other judgments; provided, however, the judgment herein prescribed shall not be considered a debt nor dischargeable in any bankruptcy proceeding.

O. ~~Whenever~~ With the consent of the victim to whom restitution is owed, whenever a person has been ordered to pay restitution as provided in this section or any section of the Oklahoma Statutes for a criminal penalty, the judge may order the defendant to a term of community service, with or without compensation, to be credited at a rate of Five Dollars ($5.00) per day against the total amount due for restitution. If the defendant fails to perform the required community service authorized by this subsection or if the conditions of community service are violated, the judge may impose a term of imprisonment not to exceed five (5) days in the county jail for each failure to comply and any restitution credited pursuant to the provisions of this subsection shall be fully reinstated and owed to the victim.

P. Nothing in subsections M through O of this section shall be construed to be additions to the original criminal penalty, but shall be used by the court as sanctions and means of collection for criminal restitution orders and restitution orders that have been reduced to judgment.

Q. Any victim requesting restitution pursuant to any provision of subsection E of this section shall have the right to participate in negotiating on the actual amount of such restitution before any plea bargain or trial in the case. The negotiation shall be conducted through a qualified victim/offender reconciliation program of this state. Such program shall be available to every crime victim requesting restitution and shall be administered by qualified and trained staff.

SECTION 2. It being immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, by reason whereof this act shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.
