

An Act relating to damages; stating short title; disallowing damages incurred through criminal conduct of plaintiff under certain circumstances; providing for codification; providing for noncodification; and providing an effective date.