

An Act relating to public health and safety; requiring persons operating motorized vessels to obtain training; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.