

An Act relating to public health and safety; expanding the Oklahoma Old Age Assistance Program; increasing and providing prescription medications for certain persons; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.