

An Act relating to statutes and reports; requiring members of the Legislature to have copies of legislation prior to certain votes; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.