

An Act relating to insurance; requiring health benefit plans to offer coverage for prostate cancer screening for certain men; providing for application of policy deductibles; stating amount of coverage; prohibiting coverage to diminish other benefits; stating guidelines for coverage; providing a definition of health benefit plans; providing certain exceptions; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.