

An Act relating to schools; creating a character first program; requiring the district boards of education to develop the programs; specifying character traits; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.