

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; providing income tax credit for business establishments incurring certain expenses relating to child care services; setting forth the amount of credit; limiting certain expenses; permitting credit to be carried forward; defining terms; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.