

An Act relating to schools; requiring the State Department of Vocational and Technical Education to allocate business training fees and funds to the area vocational-technical schools; providing for use of the funds; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.