

An Act relating to public health and safety; changing name of act to the Oklahoma Consumer of Managed Care Protection Act; modifying and adding to definitions; requiring all managed care entities to comply with act by specific date; adding to contents of rules; requiring internal system of review for resolution of complaints; providing process and procedures; requiring appointment of an Appeals Panel; requiring exercise of ordinary care when making health care treatment decisions; making managed care entities liable for damage for harm to enrollees caused by health care treatment decisions; providing clarifications; making certain clauses void; prohibiting certain defenses; requiring certain actions; providing for effect of certain allegations; providing for construction of section; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.