

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; allowing income tax credit for expending money for school supplies; setting forth amount of credit; limiting credit; allowing credit to be carried forward for certain period; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.