

An Act relating to poor persons; amending 56 O.S. 1991, Section 175, which relates to assistance from the Department of Human Services; requiring drug tests on certain applicants for and recipients of assistance; requiring such tests be performed by only certain licensed laboratories; providing for refusal to grant or continue assistance under certain conditions; providing for certain payments; requiring the promulgation of certain rules; authorizing contracts with certain laboratories; clarifying certain language; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.