

An Act relating to mental health; stating legislative findings; requiring private providers of certain services be subject to the same rules as public providers; defining term; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.