

An Act relating to schools; requiring the district boards of education to develop and make available character education programs; making available certain assistance; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.