

An Act relating to schools; allowing school district to require certain conviction information from a student prior to enrollment; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.