

An Act relating to schools; stating legislative intent; prohibiting institutions of higher education from providing certain things of value to the Governor, members of the Legislature or certain other government officers; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.