

An Act relating to public health and safety; requiring certain facilities to maintain certain minimum direct care staff to resident ratios; specifying ratios; defining terms; requiring submission of certain report; providing for contents; requiring certain studies; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.