

An Act relating to torts; making certain persons using or providing automated external defibrillator immune from civil liability in certain situations; providing exceptions; listing certain conditions for release of liability; making section part of Good Samaritan Act; defining term; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.