

An Act relating to insurance; requiring health benefit plans to offer coverage for prostate cancer screening for certain men; providing for application of policy deductibles; specifying amount of coverage and limit; prohibiting diminishing of other benefits by such coverage; stating guidelines for coverage; defining term and stating exceptions; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.