

An Act relating to children; requiring that certain psychologists or psychiatrists testifying in certain hearings as to the preferred placement of a child to have a current license to practice in this state; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.