

An Act relating to waters and water rights; requiring certain water districts to offer or provide new contractual terms in certain situations; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.