

An Act relating to statutes and reports; prohibiting implementation of legislative acts until the acts become effective; and declaring an emergency.