

An Act relating to state officer and employee compensation; providing for pay increase for certain state officers and employees; stating legislative intent for an additional pay increase; providing for noncodification; and declaring an emergency.