

An Act relating to public health and safety; requiring certain disclosure statements contain compensation agreements between managed care entities and participating providers; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.