

An Act relating to public health and safety; providing legislative intent; requiring certain senior citizens to receive certain amount of prescription medications; providing for certain services; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.