

An Act relating to tobacco; stating legislative findings; defining terms; requiring tobacco product manufacturers to meet certain financial obligations pursuant to certain agreement or make certain payments into escrow fund; providing for interest and other appreciation on such funds; specifying and providing for the release of such funds; providing for certain reversion of such funds; providing for compliance certification; stating consequences for noncompliance; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.