

An Act relating to insurance; authorizing certain organizations to convert certain prepaid funeral benefits to other prepaid funeral benefits; specifying such conversion; requiring the approval of the Insurance Commissioner for such conversion; stating purpose; requiring certain notification; requiring the filing of certain application on forms provided by the Commissioner; authorizing certain investments in certain annuities; specifying such annuities; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.