

An Act relating to poor persons; requiring up-to-date electronic records of certain collected monies; requiring certain contents; making certain information available to certain persons; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.