

An Act relating to the Department of Corrections; providing for budgetary categories; providing for duties and compensation of employees; limiting the salary of the Director; authorizing employment of certain portion of authorized employees in the unclassified service; providing budgetary limitations; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.