

An Act relating to mental health; authorizing emergency service patrols to deal with mentally ill persons; providing for the adoption and approval of standards for emergency service patrols; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.