

An Act relating to schools; amending 70 O.S. 1991, Section 11-107, which relates to psychological testing of students; requiring written consent for any psychological examination or assessment; requiring notification of results; requiring certain information; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.