

An Act relating to Schools; stating legislative intent that students with disabilities be afforded certain opportunities; requiring the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education to encourage institutions to make certain communications to certain publishers and manufacturers of instructional materials; requiring instructors to provide certain assistance; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.