

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; creating estate tax credit for donation of human organs for transplant; setting forth amount of credit; requiring documented proof; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.