

An Act relating to health; creating the "Quality Health Care Assurance Act; providing for short title; stating purpose of the act; providing for the confidentiality of certain information; prohibiting certain acts by managed care entities; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.